

ART OF
TRANSFORMATIONAL LEADERSHIP AND COACHING

2025

WHAT DOES IT REALLY TAKE TO BE AN INSPIRING AND AUTHENTIC LEADER AND COACH?

Coaching is one of the fastest growing professions. As a leader and coach being a subject matter expert is no longer enough. To be successful, leaders must confidently embrace the unknown. They must recognise emerging challenges and think innovatively about the future.

The rapidly changing world in which we live requires leaders to become change agents who are able to coach and inspire their people through complex and uncertain times.

The demand for inspiring leaders in all industries means that future-proofing your career requires solid foundations in coaching skills and the ability to deal with the most complex of issues. To be a great coach as well as a strategic 'thinking partner' in today's environment means that leaders must have a strong foundation in transformational coaching, which is more complex and nuanced than just offering behavior change advice.

Coaching in many ways is an integrative leadership style which leverages your existing leadership capabilities. Adding coaching to your toolbox means that you as the leader can help people shift beliefs and patterns of ingrained thinking easily. This shifts change-management (behaviour focussed) into change-leadership (purpose focussed), which upskills and empowers everyone on the team; speeding up the cycle of growth and enabling your team to be agile and productive.

Through this experiential program you will develop a new way of thinking, discover your own untapped potential and transform in your ability to lead and develop others and deliver results.

What do you do, when you don't know what to do?

How do you respond, when everything you know hasn't worked?

The ability to adjust your focus and modify thought processes is key.

FOCUS AREAS

EFFECTIVELY ENGAGE

Happiness & success is ultimately determined by your ability to connect with, empower and inspire those around you. By gaining self-awareness and clearly understanding your behaviours and motivations, you are able to optimise your potential & deepen your personal relationships.

You will develop flexibility in your thinking and behaviours, and learn how to more effectively engage and motivate others.

UNLOCK POTENTIAL – BECOME A SELF-AWARE LEADER

Developing a true understanding of Emotional Intelligence is critical to the success of all leaders and coaches. This starts with building your own self-awareness and giving honest recognition to your strengths, limitations and impact on others. This program will help you identify these traits, develop new strategies and step into your true potential.

EMPOWER CHANGE

Understanding how to communicate with others to effect positive change is essential.

Build a clear understanding of how to recognise what drives an individual's behaviour. You will explore new ways of building trust & having transformational conversations. You will develop deep coaching skills that will motivate, develop and empower yourself & others.

TESTIMONIALS

I joined this program to obtain additional coaching credentials. I had no idea I would also be able to fundamentally transform how I was showing up in the world.

When I first met Mei, I was exhausted and living in a constant state of burnout. Through this program, I've been able to rewire my thinking, my habits and beliefs to fundamentally transform many areas of my life.

As well as my full time Executive role, I have started side business coaching Executives and developing bespoke Leadership programs.

If you are looking to build your coaching capability or start a coaching business, this is hands down the best coaching qualification I have undertaken.

You will learn tools and techniques and a way of being in your coaching that helps create transformation and long-lasting change in individuals.

Simone Weston HR Executive – LEK Consulting

Having seen Mei at work as a coach and facilitator I knew her to be an incredible talent in the world of transformational coaching.

Despite having attended many professional and personal development programs, including several coach training sessions, it was an easy decision to invest in the Art of Transformation program. I wasn't disappointed – every session of this beautifully constructed 6 month program contained powerful insights, methodologies and frameworks that could immediately be applied with clients.

Mei's deft facilitation of transformational approaches AND simultaneously teaching a large group virtually is masterful. The way in which Mei holds the work, the individuals, the inevitable resistance and pain of growth appears effortless and speaks to her decades of experience and practice.

If you are considering deepening your coaching capability this program facilitated by Mei is truly life enhancing and an amazing forum in which to hone and practice your skills. Sharing the learning and processes with clients has resulted in great feedback including how quickly we were able to surface the real issues, how resourced they felt to try new behaviours and how others were noticing their shifts.

Fiona Pearman – Founder of Pearman & Partners, CEO Quantum Impact Group

Through Mei's guidance and coaching, I have learned much about myself as a leader. Mei has challenged the way I see the world and my place in it. She's pushed me to dig deep in order to understand my core purpose – a transformative process which has given me the courage and determination to take my leadership journey to its next level.

Mei is an exceptional facilitator and coach. I highly recommend her for organisations and leaders of any scope, size or industry.

Hang Vo - CEO Sacred Heart Mission

If you're curious or very clear about learning the power of NLP and transformational coaching, then look no further than Mei Ouw. They simplify an enormous subject into digestible segments brought to life with incredible teaching and embedded with live practice to ensure understanding. The container they create is safe, non-judgemental, energised and highly supportive allowing you to integrate the subject in whichever way is right for you. You cannot fail to also deepen your knowledge of yourself which is powerful as well as achieving a qualification further magnifying your skills and impact as a coach whatever your specialization.

Stuart Warwick – Stuart Warwick MSP Growth Specialist

This is a fantastic course and has helped me grow in a variety of areas that have made me a better and more effective leader in my organisation. Mei leads the course in a structured but adaptable fashion, allowing for time for participants to give everything a go, with a philosophy of people learn by doing. I would recommend this course to anyone looking to improve their leadership potential or work in a coaching environment.

TESTIMONIALS

This program is a journey of discovery about yourself as a leader and the power of communication. It is unlike any leadership course I've attended. The course focuses on arming you with the tools, knowledge and skills to overcome the challenges that prevent you and others from having the success you desire.

The first day I attended it was like a whole new world of communication opened up to me that I didn't even know existed. Mei so casually was able to demonstrate the power of her content in a way that you can never see the world and communication in the same way again. The insights she offers on human behaviour and yourself are worth the price of admission alone.

This knowledge as well as extremely practical techniques means that I have walked away with some really tangible and meaningful strategies and tools to use with my team and for myself.

I highly recommend this program (to anyone that wants to grow as an individual, and a must for any leader who manages staff or is responsible for setting direction and strategy).

Grant Lester — Director of Operations

Mei has helped me to transform my life.

As a gifted facilitator her programs are like a trojan horse for personal transformation as much as they are way-showers for improved coaching for my own clients. And the change has been subtle but profound: I've not only smashed my revenue target but the way I operate is smoother, easier and success comes faster to me.

Change is something I embrace and I'm continually improving my ability to support my own clients in ways I would not be able to without Mei's program and support. Through her challenges to me, I am able to see my own blocks, and identify resourceful strategies to grow beyond them.

Thank you Mei.

Ingrid Maynard - Managing Director at the Sales Doctor

Mei is the real deal--in this field to make a positive difference in the world by helping leaders to evolve and use their power for good.

She is a brilliant consultant who is working with our Executive Leadership Team to build trust, deepen our collective capabilities solve adaptive challenges, and ensure accountability in all we do. She respectfully and gracefully takes individuals and the team on a journey ... leading us away from our limitations and towards solutions that align with our values, strengths, and aspirations for the Social Research Centre and those we serve.

I highly recommend working with her and I'm happy to talk with anyone considering her as a coach or facilitator.

Diane Herz - CEO - Social Research Centre

Mei's Leadership with Insight Course is perfect for any leader wanting to challenge themselves - professionally and personally - to adapt and improve their leadership capabilities.

Mei's gracious and authentic style enables people to find the best in themselves and to draw upon the best in others around them. She is a gifted facilitator, is filled with insight and is driven by a passion to help bring a more reflective and thoughtful approach into leadership. In a world where leadership brings privilege - and responsibility - to influence the lives of others, this more conscious approach to leading is crucial.

I am so grateful to have experienced Mei's magic.
